MOTHER AND 5 CHILDREN ARE MADE HOMELESS

Fire caused an estimated $1,000 damage this morning on the outskirts of York Springs and made a widow and her five children temporarily homeless.

York Springs firemen said the blaze was apparently caused by an overheated stove in the kitchen of a remodeled trolley car that serves as the home of Mrs. Ray Knouse and her five children. Her husband died about a year ago.

The firemen added that the widow and children will seek temporary shelter with neighbors until the damage caused by the blaze can be repaired.

Most damage was in a 20 by 20 kitchen-living room added to the former trolley, which has been converted to sleeping quarters for the family.

No Insurance

While the blaze did not enter the trolley part of the structure, it was badly smoked and the heat caused windows to break. Some water damage also resulted as firemen poured water on the blazing kitchen addition which lost its roof to fire, and which was badly damaged inside as a result of the blaze.

Parker Myers, owner of the trolley-house, estimated the loss at $1,000, but said he had no insurance. The Knouse family fled to the Myers home nearby.

The structure is located in what York Springs residents call "Trolleytown," where several former trolleys have been converted to residences.

COURT DIRECTS COUPLE TO SEEK NEW AGREEMENT

Pleas of Carlton E. Ferguson, near Blue Ridge Summit, that his wife return to him led to a continuation of the support case against him following a hearing in Adams County Court Monday afternoon.

Ferguson told the court that the "whole trouble" between him and his wife was caused by her working, and he pleaded with her and the court that she give up work and be content to be a housewife. The disabled war veteran said he and his wife "got along fine" when they built their home. He added that she is "a wonderful cook, a good mother, and an outstanding housekeeper."

"Works Like Horse"

But his wife "works like a horse" whether at home or when employed and thus never lacks for employment. All went well, Ferguson said, until his wife started getting up at 3 o'clock in the morning to do the washing and ironing and take care of the house before going to work, and then came home from work to keep working about the house until late at night.

The court asked the couple to work out their differences and they left court together. Ferguson explained that he earns enough to keep the family going at his present employment and also receives a pension from the government for war injuries.

Eugene Imler, York, who was found guilty of contempt of court on a support arrearage charge and given a suspended sentence, was also given a reduction in his support order following a hearing. The new order calls for payment of $15 per week, and he was given a credit of $570 on his arrearage. He was given until Saturday to pay $125.

ROTARIANS ARE URGED TO JOIN CIVIL DEFENSE

Joseph N. Garrety, York area Civil Defense director, urged Rotarians to "join in Civil Defense activities as the best service you can give your community" at Monday evening's meeting of the Rotary club at the YWCA.

"Hiroshima was a city of 245,000 people on which the first atom bomb was dropped. It caused 31,000 deaths and 67,000 injuries. But there was no Civil Defense organization in Hiroshima. Had there been, there would have been fewer lives lost, fewer injuries.

"The bomb that fell at Hiroshima was a one megaton bomb. The bombs being tested today at Yucca Flats are 40 megaton bombs, 40 times as powerful. For the big ones, the hydrogen bombs, the testing is done in the Pacific.

"The bombs at Yucca Flats are detonated at a height of 200 feet. The ideal height for maximum destruction is 2,000 feet, because then the maximum fall-out occurs. At Yucca Flats the bombs are exploded only when weather conditions are ideal, so that there will be no danger, yet the government has had to pay for windows blown out of houses 90 miles away, for cattle poisoned by fall-out. If the enemy attacks, he will be hoping for another ideal type of weather, the kind that will cause the maximum damage.

Fear Enemy Attack

"If war comes enemy plans by the thousands will be sent against our nation. There is no doubt but that some of them will get through to drop their bombs on our cities. When that happens we need to have a trained Civil Defense crew at work, to save lives, to help the injured. I cannot understand why there should be apathy in this, for those who will be killed or injured are members of our families and our friends. Surely we should want to help them, and the best way to help is through Civil Defense."

Garrety also showed a motion picture on the explosion of an atom bomb at Yucca Flats.

Admiral Richard E. Byrd, 68, Noted Polar Explorer, Dies In His Sleep In Boston Home

BOSTON (AP)—Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd, 68, noted explorer who headed two arctic and five antarctic expeditions, died in his sleep at his home last night.

His doctors said he died of a heart ailment brought on by overwork.

He was the over-all head of Navy's huge Operation Deep Freeze in Antarctica in this International Geophysical Year, but his failing heart kept him from assuming on-the-spot supervision.

Wife, Children There

His wife and four children were at his bedside when he passed away at 6:20 p.m. at his home at the foot of Beacon Hill.

Byrd was the first man to fly over both the North and South poles and held numerous decorations, including the Medal of Honor, for his explorations.

He is credited with charting some two million square miles of the earth's surface previously unseen by man. No one has ever equaled that feat. He laid the basis for possible American claims to a third of Antarctica.

Annapolis Graduate

Once Byrd estimated his nose had been nipped by frost some 200 times. His face bore many tiny freezing marks.

After his graduation from the Naval Academy in 1912, a leg injury forced him into early retirement, but he came back to serve in World Wars I and II, pioneer in naval aviation and command the first multiengine plane to fly the Atlantic continent to continent nonstop.

He was commissioned a rear admiral at the age of 41, youngest of that rank at the time.

His last trip to the South Pole was in late 1955 and early 1956. On a 1947 expedition to Antarctica, Byrd found that food left 10 years earlier in his Little America camp was perfectly preserved.

This led him to suggest that the antarctic could serve as a vast

New Middle East Crisis Is Developing; U.N. General Assembly May Be Recalled

CAIRO (AP)—U.N. Undersecretary Ralph Bunche began meetings with Egyptian officials today to discuss Egypt's announced plan to resume control of the Gaza Strip.

Although U.N. officials in New York sought to minimize the importance of the Egyptian move, fears of a serious new Middle East crisis mounted. U.S. and Israeli officials expressed alarm, and there was talk that the General Assembly might be called back into session.

Bunche met with Col. Salah Gohar, head of the Egyptian Palestine Department, and later was to see Deputy Foreign Minister Abdel Fattah Hassan. Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi is on his way home from the U.N. Assembly.

Bunche Seeks Pact

Bunche, who won the Nobel Prize for negotiating the Palestine armistice in 1949, was reported trying to iron out differences between Egypt and the U.N. Emergency Force over administration of the Mediterranean coastal strip Israel withdrew from last week.

There was no word in Cairo when Egyptian officials actually would start to take over from UNEF. U.N. sources in the Egyptian capital indicated they hoped Egypt could be persuaded to delay, at least for a short time. Bunche, after the Egyptian announcement, said the U.N. has never "questioned Egypt's legal rights regarding Gaza." But at U.N. headquarters a source close to Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld termed the Egyptian action regrettable.

Fear Serious Difficulties

U.S. officials considered the Egyptian move completely out of

GAS COMPANY ASKS PUC FOR RATE INCREASE

Manufacturers Light and Heat Company has asked the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission for a $6,540,000, or 12 1/2 per cent annual increase in gas rates, company manager J. N. Estep said here today.

Manufacturers is seeking the increase with two different rate applications, one to become effective May 12, the other May 13.

The first application totals $1,529,000 and covers increases in gas costs. Manufacturers must pay its suppliers. Rates will go up 1.9 cents a thousand cubic feet under this application. It will raise gas costs 10 cents a month for non-heating customers and $4.56 a year for heating customers.

The second request totals $5,011,000. "It is designed to cover increased company costs for labor, supplies and materials as well as to a proper level," Estep said.

Two Separate Raises

The overall effect of the two applications will be an increase of 74 cents a month for typical non-heating customers, Estep said. Typical heating customers will have an increase averaging about $1.90 a month.

Manufacturers' present rates are based on an application the company made on December 31, 1954. The company was allowed a 6.5 per cent rate of return when the present rates went into effect on January 20, 1956. This rate was cut to 6.31 per cent by the Superior Court on December 28, 1956. A $352,000-a-year refund to customers resulting from this is being held in abeyance pending disposition of a company appeal to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court which has already turned down a company appeal on an earlier Superior Court reduction of a rate increase filed on October 7, 1953.

In this case the Superior Court reduced a 6.5 per cent rate of return to 6.30 per cent. Refunds will total $286,000 a year for the period from September 7, 1954, to January 20, 1956. The company expects to clear this refund sometime in the next 60 days.

"State and federal income taxes will take about $3,385,000 of Manufacturers' additional revenues under the new rate request. The company's increase in net earnings will run about $3,155,000," the local manager said.

Estep said company studies show "Manufacturers will have to invest an additional $23,500,000 in new facilities this year to maintain good gas deliveries to customers. About $21,000,000 of this must be raised from investors," he pointed out.

"And I have lost an old and dear friend," the President said in a statement.

200 Chicks Die In Brooder House Blaze

Abbottstown firemen were called at 3 o'clock this morning when a brooder house at the farm of Carl Alwine, in Paradise Twp., burst in flames.

Fire Chief Wilmer D. Rodgers said he believes an oil stove used to heat the 20 by 40-ft. brooder house overheated and set fire to the structure. The loss was estimated at $100 to the building. Two hundred chicks were consumed in the blaze and were valued at $15. Chief Rodgers said the wind, blowing away from the barn, plus the efforts of Alwine and others in quickly attacking the fire and keeping it under control until firemen arrived, prevented spread of the fire to a barn 15 feet away.

SCHOOL BOARDS TO TAKE OVER NEW SITE APR. 1

Boards in the Gettysburg Joint School district were notified at their March meeting Monday evening at the high school to pay in their respective shares before April 1 so that the deed to county home land being acquired as a grade school site can be obtained by April 1.

The jointure has made a down payment of $500 but $44,500 remains to be paid for the land east of the Harrisburg Rd., immediately north of the extension of E. Broadway.

The directors at the same time balked at going along with state plans to close Lincoln School when the new school is completed. Some members of the joint board expressed the opinion that Lincoln School should be continued in use if state approval can be secured.

Going To Harrisburg

After some discussion Monday evening, a motion to direct local school authorities to go ahead with the room schedule for the new building on the basis of state plans to close Lincoln school and erect an 18-room building was with Edgar Riegle was asked to make arrangements for a Harrisburg conference on the question.

Representatives of each member board were asked to volunteer to go along to the Harrisburg conference to get the state authorities to allow Lincoln school, which now accommodates 10 roomfuls of elementary pupils, to continue in use after the new building is erected.

It was pointed out that, if Lincoln school is closed, a new 18-room school will be filled to capacity "by the time it is completed and we'll be looking for another school site again." The state now proposes an 18-room school on the county home land. There are now 39 home rooms of elementary pupils and it is estimated that in six years there will be at least 46. The board is also

"THE MAIL ROOM"

The Mail Room is a busy place . . . the axle of the wheel . . . where things must be exactly right . . . and done with utmost zeal . . . the people who revolve the wheel . . . have to be on the ball . . . for if they make a rash mistake . . . it will cause a fall . . . each business house depends upon . . . the way this unit works . . . I stress the great importance of . . . the bosses and the clerks . . . their job is not an easy one . . . it's much the same each day . . . they analyze, then quickly send . . . the letters on their way . . . the Mail Room is a busy place . . . where judgment must be true . . . remember that above all else . . . the mail has to go through.

natural refrigerator to store crops in bumper years.

Missed Death
During his 1934-35 antarctic expedition, he isolated himself for about six months in a tiny hut 82 miles from the base of operations to conduct meteorological observations.

Fumes made him desperately ill, but he refrained from summoning help lest the life of someone else be endangered in a rescue attempt.

Byrd narrowly escaped death on another now forgotten occasion. It was in 1921 in England, where he had gone to assist in navigating to the United States the dirigible ZR-2, just purchased from the British government.

Crowning Honor
He missed a train and arrived too late for the test flight. The dirigible exploded over the Humber River, killing 42 of its 46 occupants.

Byrd first flew to the North Pole in 1926 and to the South Pole in 1929.

The crowning point of his career came when President Eisenhower named him "officer in over-all charge of the United States' permanent unit for antarctic activity."

Brother Of Senator
Byrd, a native of Winchester, Va., married his childhood sweetheart, Marie D. Ames, in 1915.

In addition to his widow, he leaves four children, Richard Jr., Boston; Mrs. William A. Clarke Jr., Swarthmore, Pa.; Mrs. Robert G. Breyer, Los Angeles; and Mrs. Lawrence J. Stabler Jr., Philadelphia.

He was the brother of Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia.

State's Objections
Keefauver school has 20 rooms; one sixth grade class is now housed in the high school building; 10 rooms at Lincoln and eight at Meade School.

A count of new homes erected in the last two years in districts in the joint school area is required by the state in preparing the room schedule for the new grade school.

Fix Official Duties
The board Monday evening spent considerable time in going over and making minor changes in a statement of policy for the joint school district with regard to the duties of the superintendent, the elementary and high school principals and the business manager. Final adoption was voted and revised copies of the five-page statement will be distributed to directors, teachers and staff members.

Invited To Workshop
The directors received an invitation from the Professional Planning committee of the local teachers' association to attend a teachers' workshop to be held March 19 at Keefauver School. Educational philosophy and ethics are the topics to be discussed, the directors were told.

The Band Boosters were given permission to use the high school cafeteria to serve a luncheon to the Adams Electric Cooperative at its annual meeting March 30.

Letters of thanks were read from Miss Carrie Miller, Dr. L. C. Keefauver, Miss Grace Sachs and the Adams County Heart Association.

The monthly report of the joint district treasurer, the Gettysburg National Bank, showed a current balance in the general fund of $10,439. Tuition payments last month amounted to $46,500 and there was other income of $664. Expenses totaled $42,591.

More Monthly Reports
Monthly reports for the two cafeterias were given for the 20 days they operated last month. The high school cafeteria served an average of 41 adults, 524 platters and 252 a la carte lunches to students. Receipts were $7,184 and expenses $6,087.

At the Keefauver School 30 adults and 486 pupils were served on the average each day. Income was $3,418 and expenses $3,387.

Ashburn On Base Twice, Each Game

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Richie Ashburn has been on base at least twice in each of the Philadelphia Phillies' three spring exhibition games.

Ashburn singled and walked in yesterday's 4-2 loss to Cincinnati, which saw a lineup that well may be the Phils starting one for the season opening on April 16. Every one of the regulars had one hit except shortstop Roy Smalley, who walked once.

Ashburn, besides getting on base twice, contributed a fine running catch of Hal Jeffcoat's belt to right center with two on in the fifth.

line with Egypt's reported position during talks on the withdrawal of Israeli troops from Gaza. The U.S. sources feared the sudden development might be regarded as provocative and create serious new difficulties in maintaining the shaky Middle East peace.

Israel immediately expressed "grave concern" at the Egyptian move and declared UNEF must take "exclusive responsibility" for the administration of Gaza.

Moshe Leshem, spokesman for the Israeli Foreign Ministry, said in Tel Aviv that Israel has "never asked for internationalization of the Gaza Strip."

"Base Of Aggression"

"Our attitude," he asserted, "is determined by the need to prevent the Egyptians from turning Gaza again into a base of aggression. For this purpose it is our view that UNEF must take exclusive responsibility for administration of the Gaza Strip until a peace settlement is reached between Israel and Egypt or the future of the strip is otherwise determined."

An Israeli official in Jerusalem warned that Egypt "alone will be accountable for the consequences" if Arab attacks from Gaza are resumed.

Israel had sought a definite guarantee that the Egyptians would not be allowed back into Gaza, which was put under Egyptian control by the 1949 Palestine armistice. No such guarantee was forthcoming, but Fawzi was understood in Washington to have told Hammarskjold Nasser's government would do nothing to upset the situation or create serious new difficulties.

Nasser reportedly cabled Hammarskjold that the Assembly resolutions outlining the functions of the U.N. force did not give it authority to perform administrative duties and that he was appointing Gen. Hassan Abdel Latif military governor of Gaza.

Hammarskjold held an hour-long meeting with his seven-nation advisory committee on UNEF. He was said to have indicated he was seeking clarification of the situation.

Col. Salah Gohar, director of Egypt's Palestine Department, said in Cairo the Egyptian administration intends to move in and handle Gaza's civil affairs "just as before." He would not say when Egyptian officials would enter the area.

Oriole Roster Is Cut To 61 Players

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—Baltimore has cut its bulky spring training roster to 61 by packing off four rookies to the Orioles' farm club training center at Thomasville, Ga.

Catcher Jim McAndrews and pitchers Elliott Coleman, Ed Gunning and Johnny Wartelle were told to report to Thomasville by Friday, when five of the Birds' seven minor affiliates begin working out. None of them was expected to make the varsity this season but Manager Paul Richards said all four "have big league possibilities."

SERVICES FOR DR. JOHN HAYES

Memorial tributes to Dr. John D. Hayes, veteran missionary who was killed last week in an auto accident in Indonesia, were paid Sunday in Market Square Presbyterian Church, in Harrisburg.

Dr. Hayes, who was held prisoner by the Communists in China for many months, visited Market Square Church many times following release. He participated in World-Wide Communion in Harrisburg two years ago, and last October 24, Mrs. Hayes was a guest at Family Night at the church, when Dr. Hayes sent a cablegram of greeting from Indonesia.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Hayes spoke at the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church after his release from China. In recent months he has been teaching in a school in Indonesia, where he went at the invitation of Indonesians. Apparently he was killed when he swerved his auto to avoid striking a boy on a bicycle.

The Rev. Dr. Robert H. Stephens, pastor of Market Square Church, reviewed the life of Dr. Hayes, who was born in China of missionary parents, and offered a memorial prayer at services the church Sunday morning. He paid tribute to the character and life of service of the missionary, and noted the close links with Market Square.

Dr. Stephens also attended a memorial service later Sunday in the National Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C., where Dr. Hayes served after his return from China.

3 GAGE SQUADS ARE GUESTS AT LIONS BANQUET

Basketball squads of Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg High School and St. Joseph's High School of Emmitsburg were guests of the Emmitsburg Lions Club at the fourth annual basketball dinner held Monday evening in the Lutheran parish house, Emmitsburg. Sixty-four club members and guests were in attendance.

The speaker was the Rev. Fr. Vincent Heary, C.M., chaplain of St. Joseph's College, Emmitsburg.

Charles R. Fuss, president of the Emmitsburg Lions Club, presided. Dr. John J. Dillon Jr., athletic director at Mt. St. Mary's, was the toastmaster.

Tom Mullane and Bob McNells, St. Joseph's coaches, introduced their squad members and congratulated them on their season. Ted Elliott, Emmitsburg High mentor, introduced his squad and praised them for their 10-4 record during the season.

Sullivan Receives Trophy
Jack Sullivan was lauded for his record-breaking feats at the Mount and was awarded a trophy for being selected for the second straight year on the Maryland All-State team. He was also chosen Maryland "Player of the Year."

In introducing the Mt. St. Mary's squad, Coach Jim Phelan expressed the hope they would be able to bring back the small college NCAA tournament title. This morning the Mountaineers left for Evansville, Ind., to take part in the tournament.

Rev. Fr. Heary outlined the qualities that make a good athlete and a good competitor. He urged members of all squads to carry into life those same qualities and to work as earnestly for success in life as they do on the athletic field. He commented also that both players and spectators should learn a lesson from athletic competition.

The speaker noted that in tournament games the Mountaineers had played an all-Negro and a largely Jewish team and said that the games demonstrated that athletes appraise their opponents on skill, ability and sportsmanship and said that in life "we should also measure our fellowmen on the same terms."

Today's Talk

FRIENDS

None of us can have too many genuine friends. Friends have to be earned, just the same as confidence has to be created. We need many friends so as to have those who meet our many moods. That's what makes books so valuable — by surrounding ourselves with books we can select the one at will that suits most the mood we may be in.

Valuable as books are, however, the keen mind and the warm heart have no perfect substitute. An understanding friend grows upon us with the years. It is one of the satisfactions of life itself. But we have to keep earning friends, more and more.

Listening to the inspiring talks on TV by Bishop Sheen, I am sure that multitudes have been warmed in heart as he has uttered that one word of greeting — "Friends." When given, as Bishop Sheen gives out that word, you know that all in his hearing truly are his friends.

As we grow older our friends grow nearer and dearer. We begin to see the gold that is deep under the surface. We overlook so much. Their faults don't trouble us, and we hope that ours do not irritate them! There can be a serenity to friendship that becomes an abiding thing. An investment in a friend far surpasses any material investment.

We often hear the expression, "Oh, he is a good friend of mine." All too often there is little meaning back of such a statement. We often have to go through the fires of many an experience before we are worthy to be a friend, and to have one. And when one leaves us, a part of all that we are goes with that one on the long journey. We can well look upon a friend as a benediction!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Strive!"

COLD

I'd like to be well and about
And rid of my various ills.
And I say what no caller can doubt:

I'm weary of powder and pills.
He has numerous patients to see,
As often the doctor has told,
So I wonder just why it must be
That stethoscope disk is so cold.

I think I'm not one to complain,
My doctor's devotion I trust,
I try all the twinges of pain
To suffer as well as I must.
I've given up forever the hope,
When he bends to examine my form,
The end of his old stethoscope
Some day I will find to be warm.

I wish he'd a patient next door.
I'd like to be second in line,
I don't want to feel any more
The chills that have often been mine.
An ice box that black bag must be,
His instruments safely to hold,
Whenever he puts it on me
Why must that device be so cold?

LENTEN GUIDEPOSTS

THE POWER TO HEAL
By ALFRED WILLIAM PRICE
Rector, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Philadelphia

It was after the service ended that I noticed the young couple waiting to see me. They had a tiny, blanket-wrapped baby with them.

I still remember the look in their eyes when they told me that their child was spastic — unable to grow or develop properly.

They had heard of the healing services at our church, St. Stephen's in Philadelphia. They hoped and prayed, that if I would lay my hands on their child, the Lord might hear their prayers.

I took the baby from the parents and asked them to kneel at the altar while I carried the baby to the altar. There, as always, I sought consecration through prayer.

"O Lord, take my mind and think through it. Take my heart and set it on fire with love. Take these hands and through them bring to these, Thy suffering children, the fullness of Thy healing power. Amen."

As I prayed, the baby began to cry. She kept on crying, not just for an hour or so, but for two solid days and nights.

To our great joy, when the child stopped crying on the second day, a perfect cure had taken place. Today Nancy is a fine, robust little girl.

A miracle? Yes, if you consider the power of God when so manifested to be a miracle. Here at St. Stephen's we have seen it happen so often that our reaction now tends to be one of joyous and grateful acceptance, rather than shock and surprise.

It all began — for me, at least — shortly after I was called to St. Stephen's in 1942. Many people came to me with their troubles: mental, emotional, spiritual, and sometimes physical. I did my best to help them, and prayed constantly for strength and guidance. But there always seemed to be some I could not reach, could not help.

Crippled By Arthritis
I remember one man who came to me, badly crippled with arthritis and filled with bitterness because he had been passed over for promotion in his job, a promotion he felt he deserved.

I tried to make him see that he must put aside his resentment and seek God's guidance. But I failed utterly; he went away in the same black mood of misery and despair.

I could not get this man out of my mind. I knew he was ill, both in body and spirit. And then, by coincidence perhaps, an innocent-looking little pamphlet came in the mail. It told of the success some ministers had had with the Laying-on-of-Hands Service, a part of the Episcopal ritual, for those sick in body, soul, or mind.

Used During Lent
In the past I had used this service during Lent, or whenever some sick parishioner asked for it, but in those days the thought of having a public healing service seemed much too bold a step.

At last I went into the church and sat down in a front pew to pray and think this thing through.

I glanced at the many memorial plaques on the pews and then at the one where I sat. It had belonged to Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, the great neurologist and pioneer of psychosomatic medicine.

For years Dr. Mitchell had been a faithful member of St. Stephen's. Surely he would approve of healing services, for he had often said, "It's not the body that is ill, but the mind."

A Bible Passage
I turned in my Bible to a passage I had read many times to my congregation: "Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him."

I rose from the doctor's pew strengthened, determined to follow God's leading in connection with healing services, whatever the cost might be.

In our church a healing service doesn't differ much from any formal service of worship. We open with prayers and a short message on faith and health. Then I invite those who wish to kneel at the altar for the laying-on-of-hands, while I go to the altar to seek consecration through the prayer.

A Prayer
Next, I go to the chancel and, after laying my hands upon the head of each person who has come forward, I pray: "May the mercy of God and the love of our Lord Jesus Christ and the power of His Holy Spirit which are here now enter your soul, your mind and your body for healing. Amen."

Over a span of nearly 15 years I have watched these people come, not seeking an easy way out of their problems, but looking for an opportunity to grasp the true purpose of the Incarnation: "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

Some of the cures at St. Stephen's have been swift and dramatic. A mother, with a hand swollen to three times its normal size from arthritis, received the laying-on-of-hands. She came back to church the following week, completely healed, and asked to have her now useful hand dedicated to the service of the Lord.

Many Come Slowly
Not all healings happen so quickly; many come slowly over a period of months, or even years.

In our healing ministry, our primary effort is to have the sick person healed in the area of the mind and soul. When this is accomplished, the physical healing often comes as a by-product.

The Christian ideal is to have a God-filled personality, not for health's sake, but for God's sake, and for the sake of our fellow men.

All the healing agencies are buried within us, waiting to be released. This is the heart of the Gospel, that the power of the Holy Spirit within us should be released to give us wholeness of life.

Rev. Seiwel Presides
The meeting Monday opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Seiwel, president of the Ministerium, who presided. The order of worship was arranged for the presentation of Sir John Stainer's Easter cantata "The Crucifixion," by the united community church choir on Wednesday, April 17, 7:30 p.m., in St. Paul's Church.

The united choir will appear under the direction of Samuel H. Higinbotham, of town.

The April 19 service will open with the processional hymn by all the participating churches; Scripture, the Rev. Mr. Koons; prayer, the Rev. Mr. Yates; "The Crucifixion"; offering, and offertory prayer, and benediction, the Rev. Mr. Kammerer; recessional. The Ministerium made plans to order special bulletins for the occasion.

The local pastors will be in charge of the morning devotions over radio station WHVR, Hanover, during the week of May 6, and the following assignments were made: May 6, 8:30 a.m., the Rev. Mr. Seiwel; May 7, the Rev. Mr. Karns; May 8, the Rev. Mr. Kammerer; Thursday, May 9, the Rev. Mr. Koons, and Friday, May 10, the Rev. Mr. Yates.

To Hold Bible School
A letter of appreciation was read from Dr. Howard Moody Morgan, Philadelphia, who was the guest speaker for the week of preaching mission services in January, expressing thanks for the "fine hospitality" received by him from the Ministerium and the people of the community, while spending the week here. The preaching mission was announced very successful, and favorable comments were given by the pastors.

The Rev. Mr. Seiwel announced that plans for the annual Daily Vacation Bible School will be discussed at the next meeting of the Ministerium on Monday, May 6, 10 a.m. at St. Paul's. The business concluded with prayer by the Rev. Charles B. Rebert. The pastors were then taken on a tour of the new education building now under construction as an addition to St. Paul's church. The Rev. Mr. Kammerer explained the project to the ministers.

SEND GAMBLING PROPS TO SCHOOL

The report of Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz to the Adams County court Monday morning on an order to destroy gambling paraphernalia showed that a large quantity of the articles taken into custody in the county raids have been transferred to the State Police Training School, at the request of the commanding officer there, to help young men learning to be state policemen understand the operations of the gambling devices and to give them an idea of what some of the articles look like.

The court had previously given approval for the transfer of some of the articles to the state school, in directing that the sheriff destroy the remainder.

According to the return, the crap table with felt cloth cover taken in a raid on the home of John F. Shuff, near Abbotstown, along with the croupier stick, two packs of dice and a leather dice container, was turned over to the state police training school. Also turned over to the school were two Catchem Big Ten punch board, two fish bowls, an electric Color Ado punch board, a paddle wheel, four Humdinger punch boards, two Big Fifties punchboards, two Blue Water punchboards, two Mike's Special punch boards, 12 Charley Ten Spots punch boards, six Holiday Square punch boards, four Jack Pot Charlie punch boards, six bags of Veterans Lucky Seven numbers, 100 plain punch boards, plus a host of other punch boards, etc.

The articles were asked "to provide" plans for the annual Daily Vacation Bible School will be discussed at the next meeting of the Ministerium on Monday, May 6, 10 a.m. at St. Paul's. The business concluded with prayer by the Rev. Charles B. Rebert. The pastors were then taken on a tour of the new education building now under construction as an addition to St. Paul's church. Mount Cagers Fly Today To Evansville, Ind.; Will Meet Rider Wednesday Afternoon

Mt. St. Mary's basketball squad left by plane this morning from Washington, D. C., for Evansville, Ind., where they meet Rider College, of Trenton, N. J., Wednesday afternoon for the Easter Regional title as the quarter-finals of the small college NCAA tournament opens.

The Mountaineers, riding the crest of a 20-game winning streak, longest in Mount history, has been rated with Wheaton, Ill., as co-favorites to sweep the honors.

Other quarter-final pairings for Wednesday include: Mid-East regional, Kentucky Wesleyan vs. Buffalo; Mid-West regional, South Dakota vs. Wheaton; Far-West regional, San Diego State vs. Los Angeles State.

Semi-final Program

Semi-finals are carded for Thursday evening when the winner of the Mount-Rider game opposes the Kentucky Wesleyan-Buffalo winner, while the South Dakota-Wheaton victor opposes the San Diego-Los Angeles winner. Survivors meet for the tournament title, first ever conducted on a small college basis by the NCAA, Friday evening. All games will be played at Evansville.

Rider is heralded as a fine passing outfit which has come through consistently to win tight games. Included in its victories are close decisions over Drexel and St. Michael's of Vermont.

It is possible that Jack Sullivan, star point-producer for the Mount, may crack the 1,000-mark for a single season during the tournament. He now has 969 for the current season and a total of 2,516 for his four-year career.

10 GHS CAGERS ANNOUNCED AS WINNERS OF "G"

Announcement of 10 letter winners for the past season were announced today by Coach George Forney of the Gettysburg High School basketball squad.

They include: Seniors, Co-Captains Tom Kitzmiller and Jon Wagnild, Robert Hess, Jack Crist, John King, Richard Pyle and David Weikert, manager; Juniors, Earl Little, Kenny Keefe and Sidney Steinhorn.

Crist, King and Pyle receive service letters. They are awarded in the senior year to squad members who have fulfilled the requirements of being a regular member of the squad for three years but who never met the requirements in minutes of actual play — 25 per cent for the season. During the past season there were 672 minutes of play which would mean a player would need 168 minutes.

Many who have come close to playing the required number of minutes have wound up with service awards. All letters are identical.

Kenny Mummert, a junior who will be ineligible next year due to the eight-semester rule, will receive a service letter next season.

The letters will be awarded during the assembly program Wednesday afternoon.

Fred Glover Likely Topper For Season

NEW YORK (AP)—Maintaining a solid eight-point margin over his nearest rival, Cleveland's Fred Glover today was atop the American Hockey League's individual scoring race — and appeared the likely champion with two weeks of the season remaining.

Glover, held to one point last week, has collected 92 points on 40 goals and 52 assists. League statistics released today showed teammate Jimmy Moore retained his runner-up spot with 84 points. Willie Marshall of Hershey is third with 83. Moore is the assist leader with 63.

Goalie Johnny Bower or Providence registered the 37th shutout of his AHL career to snap the old mark of Nick Damore by one. He also lowered his league-leading goalending average to 2.37 tallies permitted per game.

WILLIAMS AND JENSEN MISSING WHILE SOX LOSE

By JOHN CHANDLER
The Associated Press

Beantown fans, don't be alarmed! True, the Boston Red Sox have yet to win a spring exhibition game, and they'll be battling the New York Yankees again today at St. Petersburg, Fla.

The Red Sox have scored only two runs since exhibitions began Saturday. The Detroit Tigers thumped them 10-1 Saturday, the Washington Senators downed them Sunday 4-1, while yesterday three Yankee right-handers combined to shut them out 2-0 on three hits.

However, a good part of the Boston batting punch is absent in the persons of Ted Williams and Jackie Jensen. Furthermore, these power boys probably won't get into the lineup until the Red Sox travel to the West Coast later this month. Jensen is working out in California.

Sore And Stiff

Williams, sore and stiff, watched from the bench in civilian clothes as the veteran Tom Sturdivant and rookies Ralph Terry and Jack Urban blanked his mates.

Yogi Berra, American League Most Valuable Player in 1956, played his first game of the spring and drove in one New York run with a sacrifice fly and the other scored on an infield out.

Manager Mike Higgins says its up to Williams, and Williams alone when to decide he's ready to play.

Unbeaten Pittsburgh Pirates made it three straight at Fort Myers, Fla., defeating the Washington Senators 3-2 on catcher Danny Kravitz's run — scoring single in the last of the ninth.

Herb Score, Cleveland 20-game winner, and rookies Jim Grant and Dick Mesa limited Baltimore to six hits as the Indians won 5-1 at Scottsdale, Ariz.

At Mesa, Ariz., the New York Giants broke a 4-4 tie in the top of the ninth and went on to defeat the Chicago Cubs 7-4. The Cubs have yet to win in three starts.

Stan's Second Homer

Art Schult and Pete Wisenant rocked rookie pitcher Angelo Li Petri for home runs and the Cincinnati Redlegs defeated the Philadelphia Phils 4-2 at Tampa, Fla. Rip Repulski and Teddy Kazanski homered for the Phils, who also have dropped three in a row.

Stan Musial blasted his second homer in two days for St. Louis Cardinals to defeat the Milwaukee Braves 4-3.

Brooklyn got classy two-hit pitching last night at Miami from Bob Darnell, Ken Lehman, Charles Templeton and Don Elston, but the Chicago White Sox shoved across the lone tally in the fourth for a 1-0 victory.

NORTH CAROLINA FACES YALE IN GARDEN TONIGHT

By DON WEISS
The Associated Press

The North Carolina Tar Heels, who specialized all season in winning the close ones, have turned up a romping winner in the final Associated Press college basketball poll.

Unbeaten in 24 regular season games prior to a three-game sweep through the Atlantic Coast Conference championship tournament, the Tar Heels climaxed a two-month reign yesterday by drawing first-place votes from 55 of the 76 participating sports writers and sportscasters. Kansas, the runner-up after leading part of the season, drew nine.

On the basis of 10 points for first place, 9 for second, etc., North Carolina received 725 points to 602 for the Jayhawks. Kentucky, Southern Methodist, Seattle, Louisville, West Virginia, Vanderbilt, Oklahoma City, and St. Louis rounded out the top 10 in that order.

The nation's only major unbeaten team as they prepare for their first-round game with Yale tonight in the NCAA competition at New York, the Tar Heels succeeded the San Francisco Dons, No. 1 in the AP final balloting in the last two seasons.

Of their 27 consecutive victories, the Tar Heels — brought back to the national spotlight by Coach Frank McGuire — won seven by five points or less.

SADDLER EAGER FOR CRACK AT NEW CHAMPION

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Retired featherweight champion Sandy Saddler is eagerly looking forward to the day of his "retirement" and a chance to get a crack at his successor.

"All I hope is that this tournament they're having to get a new champion builds up a lot of interest so we can make a lot of money when we meet for the title," said Sandy today at Flower Fifth Avenue Hospital.

Hospital authorities say the lanky, 30-year-old Saddler is "coming along satisfactorily" after an eye operation and that if the healing continues as well as it has he should be able to fight again. He has a detached retina in his right eye resulting from an auto accident. He gave up his title on Jan. 22 for fear he was losing sight in the eye.

"Why Not Pep?"

"When I get out of here I'm going to get in the merchant marine for a short spell and go places. Then I'm going back in training and will challenge the winner. I feel I can beat any featherweight around and that includes those named for the tournament."

Miguel Berrios, Puerto Rico, and Carmelo Costa, Brooklyn, who open the elimination tournament at Madison Square Garden, March 22, Nigeria's Hogan (Kid) Bassey and Cherif Hamia of France were the four picked for the tourney by the World Boxing Committee.

"How come they didn't pick Willie Pep for the tournament?" asked Sandy. "He's still the best featherweight in the world next to me."

REBELS STEAL CAGE SPOTLIGHT

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The villa Madonna College Rebels of Covington, Ky., stole the spotlight in first round action yesterday of the National Collegiate Basketball Tournament by upsetting third seeded West Virginia Tech 93-91.

Texas Southern, one of last year's finalists, escaped elimination from the week long tournament by a narrow 67-66 margin over New Haven, Conn., State.

Other first round results included Portland, Ore., University 77, Austin Peay State of Clarksville, Tenn., 65; Eastern Illinois State of Charleston 83, Highlands University of Las Vegas 76; Central State (Stevens Point) Wisc., 93, Millersville, Pa., State 85; Hamline University of St. Paul 75, Wayland College of Plainview, Tex., 72; Southwest Texas State of San Marcos 104, Upper Iowa of Fayette 71; Emporia, Kan. MEASURE READY TO RAISE STATE FISHING FEES

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (AP)—Proposed legislation to increase fishing license fees from $2.50 to $4 a year beginning Jan. 1 was in shape for introduction in the House today. The principal sponsors of the bill said it "reflects the opinion of the majority" of the county groups of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

The State Fish Commission last August proposed doubling the $2.50 fee "to give Pennsylvanians the kind of fish management program they are entitled to have." It intends to introduce its own legislation soon.

Rep. Robert H. Breon (R-Centre) said the federation-backed bill "provides the entire $1.50 increase to be used only for land and stream acquisition."

Opposed $5 Fee

"We are not giving them a nickel to fritter away on anything they need (the commission) think they need money for," he added.

Some time ago directors of the federation refused to endorse the commission's proposed $5 license fee but approved a $1.50 increase with $1 to be earmarked specifically for land and stream acquisition.

Pennsylvania's 700,000 fishermen buy their licenses on a calendar year basis. Any change in fee approved finally by the current legislature would not be effective until 1958.

Seek 2 Co-sponsors

One definite co-sponsor of the bill is Rep. Reginald Stimmel (R-Lehigh). Two others are to be added.

Meanwhile, the federation officially requested Gov. Leader to make public "additional information" to support his recommended 1957-58 budget for the Fish Commission. Last week he suggested its spending be cut back from $4,888,462 during 1955-57 to $4,425,000.

The governor's figures did not take into account any change in license fees.

North Carolina Tar Heels Close Unbeaten Season By Topping AP Cage Ballots

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
"You know you can win too much too."

That's Frank McGuire's cautious attitude as his unbeaten Tar Heels head into competition against the nation's toughest college teams in the 19th National Collegiate Basketball Tournament.

North Carolina faces Yale tonight in a first-round triple-header at Madison Square Garden, Connecticut, Yankee Conference champion, encounters Syracuse, and West Virginia, Southern Conference winner, plays Canisius.

The first round opened last night at Pocatello, Idaho, where Idaho State defeated Hardin-Simmons 68-57.

Tonight at Columbus, Ohio, Morehead (Ky.) of the Ohio Valley Conference plays Pittsburgh and Miami (Ohio), the Mid-American Conference champion, meets Notre Dame. Oklahoma City University, an at-large entry, enters Loyola (La.).

The first-round winners advance to join nine other teams in four regional tournaments at Philadelphia.

phia, Lexington, Ky., Dallas and Corvallis, Ore., Friday and Saturday. The four survivors will clash in the last two rounds at Kansas City March 22-23.

No. 1 Team

North Carolina, winner of 27 straight games and the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament, has been voted the nation's No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll. The Tar Heels must be rated as at least one of the top favorites to win the title, which went to San Francisco the past two years.

But McGuire tempered optimism with caution.

"We were very very lucky to win a number of games that could have gone either way," he said. "There's more pressure the more you win and it's much harder to keep a team up."

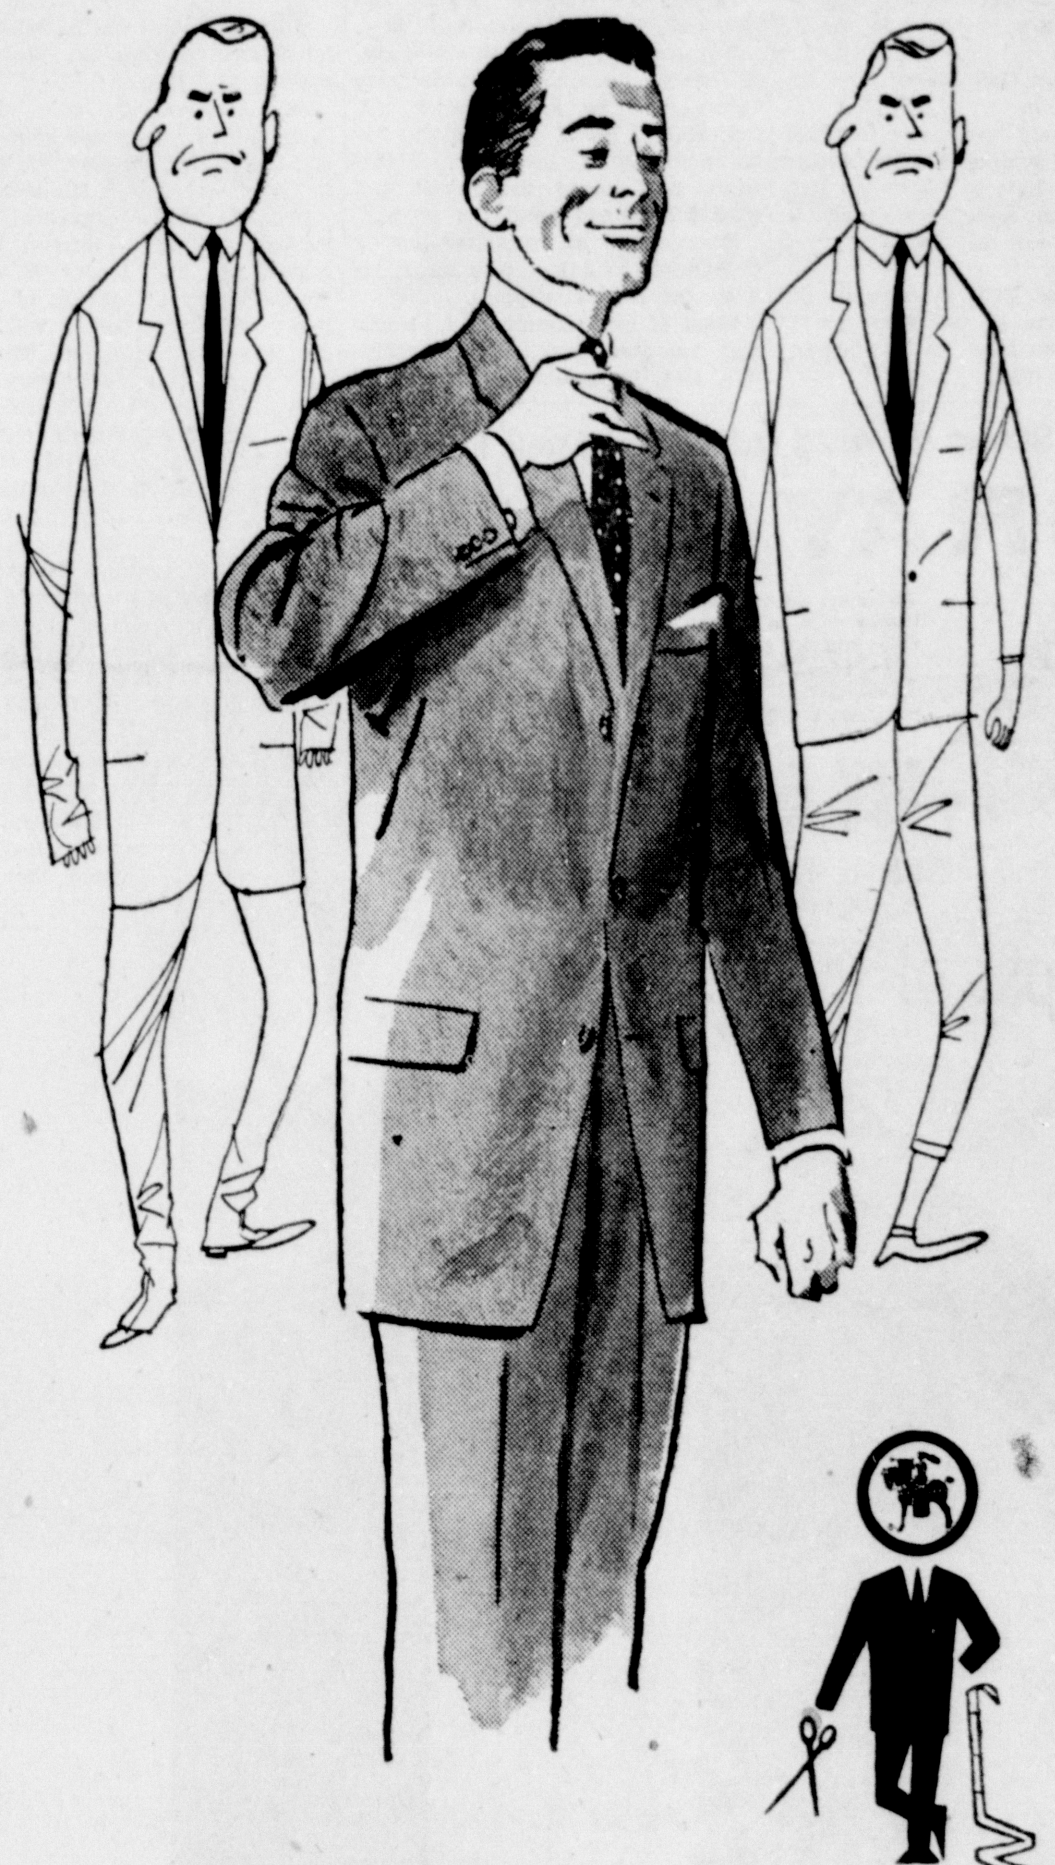

West Virginia Ahead

If North Carolina gets past Yale, the chances are it will meet West Virginia in a game matching two All America performers — Carolina's Lennie Rosenbluth and West Virginia's Hot Rod Hundley.

The Syracuse-Connecticut winner will face Lafayette, Middle Atlantic Conference winner, at Philadelphia.

Winners of the Morehead-Pitt and Miami-Notre Dame games will meet Kentucky and Michigan State, respectively, at Lexington.

The Oklahoma City-Loyola winner plays St. Louis, champion of the Missouri Valley Conference, and Idaho State meets defending champion San Francisco. Other second-round pairings are Kansas vs. Southern Methodist at Dallas and Brigham Young vs. California at Corvallis.

"NON-PARTIAL" BODY SOUGHT ON COMMUTATIONS

HARRISBURG (P)—A Philadelphia lawmaker today prepared a bill for Senate introduction that would establish a "non-partial" body to evaluate commutation and pardon pleas presented to the State Pardons Board.

"I will introduce legislation soon to establish a Bureau of Evaluation to study commutation and pardon petitions before they are sent before the board," said Sen. Israel Stiefel (D-Phila.).

Stiefel's statement came as a special legislative committee was ready to resume public hearings tomorrow into operation of the four-member board.

The Philadelphia lawmaker said yesterday his proposed legislation would ask that the five-member board be set up under the State Justice Department with a biennial appropriation of $100,000 to cover salaries and administrative expenses.

Disqualified Some
This measure also would disqualify judges and district attorneys from appearing before the board to present recommendations on cases being heard by the board. "Too many times judges and district attorneys who know little or nothing about the cases before the board get up there and make recommendations which are of little or no aid to the board," Stiefel declared.

Under the present system, district attorneys and judges from the county in which the petitioner was sentenced often times appear before the board to oppose or support a commutation or pardon.

The Senate yesterday approved and sent to the governor a House-passed measure that would appropriate $20,000 for the expense of the legislative probe, now in its third week.

May Call Mayor
Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins (R-Cameron) said the committee was considering calling Mayor Arthur Gardner of Erie to testify on Erie County cases which appeared before the board in the last seven years.

Among the Erie cases were the commutations of sentences for 17 persons convicted in a bribery scandal in 1954.

They were former Govs. John S. Pine, whom Gov. Leader succeeded, and Arthur H. James. Both are former Superior Court judges.

It was the first time in a number of years that two former governors attended the dinner. Invitations this year were extended to former judges as well as the present bench.

REPORT REVOLT IN BORNEO MAY SPREAD TO JAVA

JAKARTA (P)—Another major island of the Indonesian republic, Borneo, was reported in rebellion against the central government today. Rumors circulated that the revolt might even spread to Java, virtually all that the Jakarta regime still controls.

High government sources said yesterday Premier Ali Sastro Amidjojo and his Cabinet would resign tomorrow. There was no indication, however, that this would check the other islands' move toward control of their own affairs.

Borneo's breakaway was reported by the correspondent there of Keng Po, Indonesia's largest newspaper. Sjarif Usman, Masjumi party member of Parliament, said he had received a cable from Borneo "confirming that rebellion has broken out."

Demand Autonomy

Keng Po reported that the army commander on Borneo, the archipelago's largest island and home of the Dayak headquarters, had formed a revolutionary council which demanded immediate autonomy. The army leader, Lt. Col. Hasan Basri, 32, said the Jakarta-appointed governor, Sjakir kawi, had joined the revolt and with him would head the council.

Basri said he was sending a delegation to Jakarta to negotiate with the central regime.

PUSH DRIVE TO OPEN TOURIST SEASON EARLY

The first phase of the Gettysburg Travel Council's program, publicity intended to advance the opening of the tourist season, is already going forward as a campaign for funds to finance the program is being carried on among local business and professional men.

Metropolitan newspapers in the East and the mid West recently published an article that emphasized the benefit of a stay in Gettysburg long enough to include touring the battlefield with a licensed guide and visiting the museums. Although contemplated clipping service is not yet available to the Travel Council, clippings so far received from Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Detroit show that, in those cities terly meeting on Sunday, April 7, in St. Francis Xavier parish hall, Gettysburg, at 2:30 p.m. The meeting have been changed to the first Sunday of the month instead of the second due to Palm Sunday. The annual spring banquet of the Union will be held on Thursday, April 25, at 7 p.m., in the Sacred Heart auditorium, Conewago Chapel when the Most Rev. Lawrence F. Schott, Auxiliary Bishop of Harrisburg, will be the speaker. Tickets are available from the local parish officers. Fathers are encouraged to take their sons along to the banquet.

A nominating committee, composed of Stewart N. Long, Thomas French and Paul E. Altoff, was appointed to prepare a slate of officers for election at the next meeting on April 14. There was a discussion on the progress made by the new St. Aloysius Athletic Board, as concerns the inception of an athletic program for the parochial school. The pastor spoke regarding the banquet and led the closing prayers.

alone, the story of Gettysburg's readiness to serve the tourists was presented to several million readers.

Sunday the New York Times published a Gettysburg piece as the lead in its "News Notes From The Field Of Travel." It carried a two column illustration entitled "Gettysburg's Seminary Ridge with the Lee Monument, which faces across the ground of Pickett's Charge." It described the Cyclorama, National, Lincoln, Lee and Jennie Wade museums, the Lincoln room and the Diorama.

Encouraging Reports

Reports this week by those campaign committees that so far have been able to make extensive solicitation brought expression of satisfaction from the four division chairmen, Russel A. Campbell, Paul L. Spangler, Walter B. Lane and Carl Schutt. These committees are on accommodations, William S. Ayre, chairman, and restaurants, N. A. Meligakes, chairman. In the accommodations group 54 per cent of the businesses raised 58.5 per cent of their quota, while 34 per cent of the restaurants have raised 44 per cent of theirs.

"The reports thus far," the division chairmen said, "indicate that if the retail stores, attractions, guides, laundries and other groups participate proportionately as the accommodations and restaurant people are doing, we are confident of the successful outcome of this campaign and of the ultimate effectiveness of our program to bring more tourist dollars to this community."

How come the new Ford rides so smooth and solid?

It's the new inner Ford that gives you a big-car ride at low Ford prices

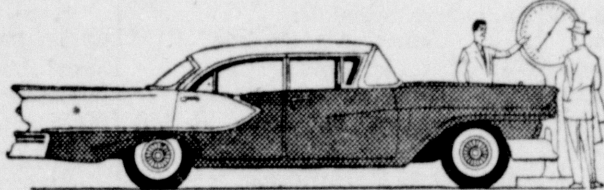

• Folks just naturally love Ford's longer, lower silhouette. And they love Ford's new, more powerful Thunderbird V-8's and Mileage Maker Six. But the thing that's really got 'em buzzing is Ford's new kind of ride. In the new kind of Ford these vital riding features team up to give you the smoothest going in the whole ride world. They're demonstrated elsewhere on this page.

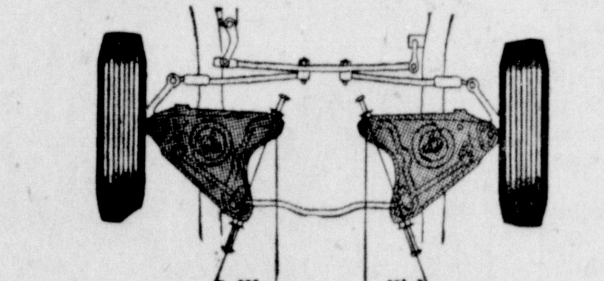

New automatic variable-rate rear springs
Going from a highway to a byway in a Ford, is like going from satin to silk. New design allows Ford's rear springs to "soften" or "stiffen" depending on road conditions. You get a smooth ride all the way!

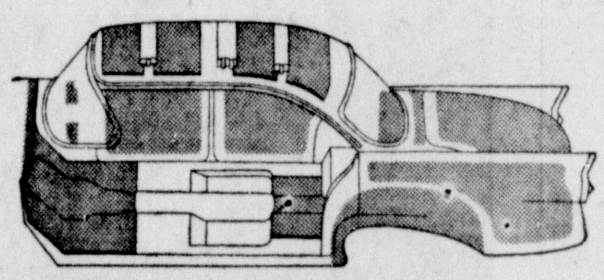

More comfortable seating
There's no sag when you sit in a Ford... even on long trips. Comfort-contoured seats, rigidly anchored, have advanced springing for greater comfort and longer life.

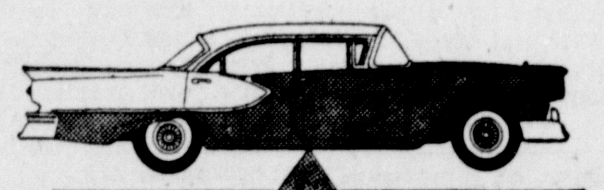

More weight and length
Head for the roughest road in the new kind of Ford. Notice how the biggest bumps lose their "thump"! One reason is that this biggest, longest, heaviest Ford has the extra "beef" to give a smooth, road-hugging ride.

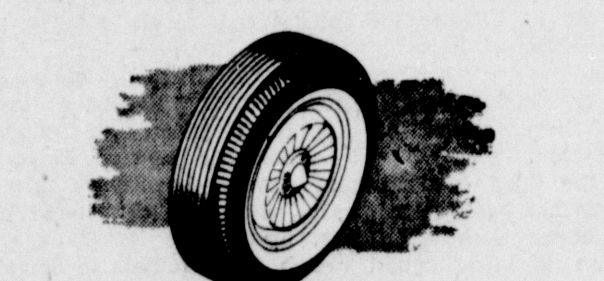

New swept-back ball-joint front suspension
Ford's new, stronger front suspension is designed to soak up the shock of rough roads. The new swept-back design lets wheels "roll" with the bump and absorb it going away... for smoother, steadier sailing.

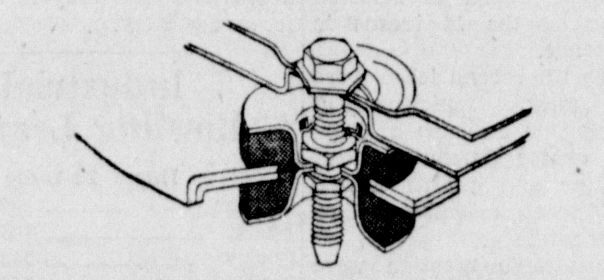

More body insulation
Ford has more body insulation—protection against weather, dust, and noise—than any car in the low-price field. You ride through city traffic in library-like quiet.

Better balance
One of Ford's nicest back-road habits is to make believe the rough spots aren't there. Proper weight distribution and precise balancing let Ford iron out bumps far better than many of the higher-priced cars.

New lower-pressure tires
Even Ford's tires are new for a better ride! Although they require less air pressure, they hold about 17% more air for cushioning the car. This means a softer ride—without sacrifice of Ford's good handling characteristics.

No metal-to-metal chassis and body contact
Only Ford in its field uses 20 Cushion Quiet rubber body mounts... more than any other low-priced car. It all adds up to a smoother, quieter riding car.

FIND NEW USES FOR FLY ASH AS AID TO INDUSTRY

By JOHN MOODY
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Big industries, especially utilities, that have had ash disposal problems for years, now are finding markets to make it a profitable by-product of the coal-fired boiler rooms.

The powder-fine coal ash—called fly ash—that has cost companies huge sums to truck away is finding its way into highway construction and building programs. Laboratory men are busy searching for still more uses.

Detroit Edison Co. pioneered the research projects to lift fly ash from a costly disposal problem to a marketable product. The research was started in the early 1930's.

More Research
Today between five and 10 per cent of an estimated nine million tons of fly ash is sold each year. The rest still goes to waste dumps.

Bituminous Coal Research, Inc., a non-profit organization sponsored by coal producing and coal using firms, now is heading the research program.

BCR has prepared masses of literature detailing the advantages of fly ash in building road bases and in making concrete blocks. Contractors and construction men get their share of the literature.

Favorable Reports
Since 1950 nine states have used fly ash in small sections of new road construction to test it. BCR says initial reports from most of the states have been favorable.

In road construction, fly ash is used to choke the base course of heavy stone. It replaces granulated slag which for years has been used to pack road bases before concreting or asphaltting.

BCR says the fly ash is cheaper, can be applied more quickly and easily and is always available whereas slag frequently must be stockpiled far in advance.

Penna. Using It
Pennsylvania is the most recent state to install a fly ash road base for test purposes. A 500-foot section of bituminous-surfaced road was laid last year in Penn Township near Pittsburgh. It's too early for progress reports.

The Pennsylvania road project used 67 tons of fly ash.

The price of fly ash varies in different parts of the nation. In Pittsburgh and Detroit the going price for bulk fly ash is about $1 a ton. In Chicago bulk prices range up to $1.50 a ton and in some sections of the south bulk fly ash is bringing as much as $2 a ton.

FINE RETURNS TO POLITICS

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—Former Gov. John S. Eime told a cheering audience of some 200 here Sunday night he was returning to politics in Luzerne County.

Fine, who has been in self-imposed political retirement since completing his term as governor in 1954, blasted the present county GOP leadership for what he termed "government by terror."

The former state chief executive said: "I cannot sit idly by without some nausea caused by the arrogance and egotism of the Luzerne County leadership and their utter disdain of their campaign promises and the wishes of the electorate."

Interrupted 21 Times
Fine spoke 22 minutes and was interrupted 21 times by cheers of the political gathering. He declared, "rather than see them (present county leaders) grow bolder in their misconduct, I have decided to get back into the political arena."

He stressed that "I am not at this time announcing my candidacy for any office. The announcement concerning my candidacy and the state will be made later." It is believed that Fine, a former

SAYS ENGLAND WILL NOT QUIT EUROPEAN AREA

PARIS (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan says Britain has no intention of withdrawing from the European mainland.

Heading home Sunday night after two days of talks with French Premier Guy Mollet, Macmillan said in a parting statement that he well understood French concern about reorganization of British forces in Germany.

"The presence of a powerful British force is an undertaking that Great Britain has given Europe and that she will continue to give," he said. "My government has no intention of withdrawing from Europe, so to speak, on tip-toe. On the contrary, the changes we are considering are aimed at making our forces in Germany at the same time more efficient and less costly in men and money."

To Reduce Garrison
Britain wants to reduce her garrison in West Germany and depend instead on more modern weapons.

Upon his return to London, Macmillan said his visit had been particularly valuable because Mollet had just come back from his Washington talks and Macmillan is to meet President Eisenhower in Bermuda next month.

The Prime Minister told questioners he saw no reason why British and French ships shouldn't be able to go through the Suez Canal when it is reopened. Britain and France announced agreement on a common stand in dealing with the rest of the world on the issue of Suez shipping. Outlines of the French-British policy were not disclosed.

State Superior Court judge, will seek one of three sitting judge posts, or possibly an Orphans Court vacancy caused by the resignation of Benjamin R. Jones, who was elected to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court at the last election.

"I am coming back into politics and will be in it everyday from now until the primary election in May," he told his audience. "It is high time to call a halt to payroll padding, increased taxes and confessed conduct of the county government on a non-business basis."

SENATOR SAYS
IKE WILL HELP
'58 CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Schoepel (R-Kan.) said today he expects President Eisenhower to take an active but "dignified" part in next year's efforts to elect a Republican Congress.

Schoepel, who heads the GOP Senatorial Campaign Committee, indicated he does not share fully the views of Chairman Simpson (R-Pa.) of the corresponding House committee that Eisenhower should not be "asked to go to the grass roots" to campaign in 1958.

Simpson told a news conference yesterday he thinks Eisenhower "did a little too much of that" in previous campaigns.

Both spoke out after the party's Executive Committee launched what GOP National Chairman Meade ALCOR said will be "the most intense campaign in history to elect a Republican Congress."

The campaign, to include a series of six regional meetings of Republican leaders in April and May, received Eisenhower's "warmhearted endorsement."

Schoepel said in an interview he thinks Eisenhower will want to get into the battle for control of Congress when the time comes.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) said today the Republicans' chances of winning control of Congress next year look "pretty dismal right now."

In a speech prepared for the Women's National Republican Club in New York City, he said he thinks many GOP senators "will have hard fights" and "the prospects for gaining control of the House are not much better."

For the 1960 presidential elections, he said, Republicans have a much better outlook if they will quit "feuding" among themselves, and will support what the people want.

Dormant Volcano Awakened By Nervous Northwestern Pacific

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nervous northeastern rim of the Pacific continued to tremble Sunday night in the wake of Saturday's mighty earthquake in the Aleutian Islands.

The restless earth that sent tidal waves crashing into villages in Hawaii and Japan rumbled again at 7:20:23 p.m., Pacific Standard Time (10:20:23 p.m., EST).

The University of California seismograph at Berkeley was still registering the shock 2 1/2 hours later.

Research assistant John Denoyer said the new quake, apparently another vigorous aftershock of the Saturday quake, appeared again to be in the Aleutians.

Meanwhile, the Coast and Geodetic Survey office in Honolulu reported that Mt. Vesuvio on the Aleutian Island of Unimak was belching smoke after lying dormant for 200 years. Officials said it probably had been stirred to life by Saturday's big quake.

In Hawaii, where waves ranging from 3 to 9 feet high slammed up over the beaches Saturday along northern shores of the islands, Gov. Samuel Wilder King said 154 people were left homeless in two villages on Kauai while 4,000 others were isolated by washed-out bridges.

Unofficial damage estimates ranged up to two million dollars. No direct loss of life was reported because of early warnings, but Paul O. Beam, veteran newsman, and Sarah Park, Star-Bulletin reporter, were dead in the crash of a plane photographing the waves.

Hours after the alert had ended in Hawaii, nine-foot waves crashed into fishing villages on Hokkaido, northernmost of the main Japanese islands. Police reported one house washed away with others wrecked and more than 50 flooded. The 3 1/2-foot wave that belatedly rolled into San Diego Bay late

GOP Plans To Pass "No-New Taxes" Program On Tuesday

HARRISBURG (AP)—Senate Republicans today set their sights on passing the GOP "no-new-taxes" revenue program tomorrow despite Democratic demands for at least a week's delay to study new sales tax revisions.

The Senate Finance Committee sent to the floor late yesterday the plan to continue nearly a million dollars in existing general taxes and to cut back the gasoline tax a cent a gallon June 1.

Chairman Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster) said after the Senate GOP majority gave initial floor action to the package last night that the goal was to place the program on Gov. Leader's desk Thursday or Friday.

Expect Reductions
"We know the Appropriations Committee will make sufficient reductions in the budget submitted by the governor so as to eliminate the imposition of any new taxes whatsoever," Kessler said.

But Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, attacked what he termed Republican haste in pushing through the House-approved tax program.

"I can interrogate any one of you (Republicans) now and I'd be willing to wager you don't know anything more about this legislation than we do on the Democratic side at this time," Dent said in asking for a week's delay.

Fifteen typewritten pages of amendments were added to the sales tax law in committee. One would provide for a firm legal basis for the familiar jar of sales tax pennies alongside the cash drawer in small retail stores.

Most of the complex revisions dealt with giving manufacturers and public utilities a break on their sales tax payments. Marginal exemptions are spelled out fully for the manufacturers.

For example, all items from the beginning to end of the process of manufacture would be considered exempt. That would include crating and wrapping equipment which is not now exempt. Sales tax refunds would be taken from the hands of the Revenue Department and turned over to the Board of Finance and Revenue.

The changes dealing with manufacturers and refunds would be retroactive to May 24, 1956—the effective date of the last previous revisions to the sales tax.

The 6 per cent corporate net income tax law would be revised under Senate amendments to provide that Pennsylvania firms may file consolidated returns on the same basis as they do with the federal government.

Other legislative developments: Government Reorganization—A special 10-member bipartisan commission recommended abolition of the General State Authority and giving to the Legislature the right to borrow money or capital, improvements by a two-thirds vote.

The commission, in its first report, also said the constitutional borrowing limits of school districts and municipalities should be increased to remove the necessity for local authorities.

Pardon Board Probe — Sen. Israel Stiefel (D-Phila.) sponsored legislation to create a Bureau of Evaluation in the Justice Department to make an impartial study of applications of pardons and commutations and make a report monthly to the state pardon board. Operations of the board are now under legislative investigation.

Occupational Disease Benefits—The House passed, 198-0, a deficiency appropriation of $1,100,000 for occupational disease benefits.

House Democrats lost a move to restore a half million dollar cut imposed by the GOP last week.

Health Department Probe — House Republicans came up with a demand for a legislative investigation of the State Health Department on the heels of the dismissal of Dr. Henry Pleasants Jr. as Chester County medical director.
